

I have, however, acted as the "individual trustee in the interim as necessary" in this matter and as part of routine reporting procedures I emailed my fellow trustees advising them of this and other administrative matters on 27 February. To date I have received a response only from Mr. Bain which was in agreement with all matters advised including the changing focus of the Event.